We ask that you read our terms and conditions carefully before using our service.

1. Kiddicare's babysitters are not employed by the Agency.
2. A NSW Government 'Working with Children' check has been carried out on all babysitters
3. Whilst Kiddicare makes every effort to ensure the suitability of the people referred, no responsibility is accepted for any loss, expense or damage incurred for any reason.
4. A cancellation fee will be charged if appropriate notice has not been provided regarding the cancellation of services. Please refer to our Cancellation Policy.
5. Kiddicare babysitters will accept CASH payments ONLY. A receipt will be issued upon request.
6. Minimum booking for babysitting service is 3 hours.
7. For privacy and safety, please do not ask your Kiddicare representative to disclose their personal phone numbers.
8. Bookings with staff introduced by or through the Agency should be made with the Agency. (Staff and parents will be removed from the Agency list if bookings are arranged directly without first informing the Agency.)
9. No responsibility or liability whatsoever can be accepted by the Agency, its proprietor, associates, agents or employees for any costs, damages, claims, expenses, losses or liabilities whatsoever and howsoever caused to clients or their property arising from any introduction or booking effected by or through the Agency. The Agency is unable to give and does not give and therefore is not to be taken as implied by any introduction or booking effected by or through the Agency any warranty and or representation concerning the history, character, age, capability or suitability of staff introduced or booked. It is the responsibility of the client to accept or otherwise the suitability of staff introduced or booked through the Agency.
